

(Outline of Contents
(Titles underlined))

M. E. C.
12-28-20

MAR -5 1921 ✓

REGIONAL GEOGRAPHY

©CLM 1886 C MIDDLE ATLANTIC STATES

Part One

Published by

Society for Visual Education, Inc.

Map of the United States. Pointer outlines the group of Middle Atlantic States. Map fades to a closer view of the group, with states named.

The eastern margin of this region lies within the Atlantic Coastal Plain

Dr. Atwood outlines the Atlantic Coastal Plain on a relief map and places placard.

(Atlantic Coastal Plain)

The shore line is low and sandy

View of shore line and waves, showing characteristic shore topography

Fruit and vegetables are raised in the sand and clay soils

Orchard scene and view of potato field.

Near the large cities market gardening is a profitable industry.
Raising egg-plant

Workers picking egg-plant

- Courtesy of
U. S. Reclamation Service

A field of tomatoes

View of large field of tomato plants - Courtesy of
U. S. Reclamation Service

Celery grows in sandy and loamy soils

Banking celery

- Courtesy of
U. S. Reclamation Service

Protected bays and drowned river mouths make fine harbors
New York harbor, as seen from Jersey City, looking across the Hudson

Panorama of New York's skyline.

Greater New York City

Map of New York City with the boroughs named.

Part of the city is built upon the Coastal Plain

Map resumed. Dotted line shows Long Island and Staten Island to be part of the Coastal Plain.

But Manhattan Island is a part of the Appalachian Highland

Manhattan Island and the Bronx are shown to belong to the Highland region.

The water-front is lined with piers. Deep-water docks receive the largest ocean liners

The Aquitania being docked.

New York receives more immigrants than any other port.
Ellis Island, the immigrant station, in Upper New York Bay

View of Ellis Island from the bay, and a nearer view of some of the buildings

New York outranks all other seaports of the United States in export and import trade.
East River docks

View of docks along the river, with bridges in background.

Great railroads connect New York with all parts of the country
Interior of the Pennsylvania Station, one of the city's largest terminals

Scene in main waiting room, Pennsylvania Station.

New York's financial districts
Looking up Wall Street, with Trinity Church in background

View of Wall Street

Union Square

View showing one of the "uptown" business districts.

Two of the largest universities in the United States are located in New York
Columbia University

Scene showing the campus and buildings of Columbia University.

New York University, in the Bronx

Similar scene of New York University.

Many beaches from Long Island southward are famous as summer resorts.
Beach at Atlantic City, N.J.

View of the wide beach at Atlantic City.

The Board Walk, Atlantic City

Promenaders on the famous Board Walk

Atlantic Avenue, Atlantic City

View of business district.

Hampton Roads, at the mouth of the James River

View of the wide bay

Courtesy of
U. S. Navy

In Hampton Roads the United States fleet is frequently anchored

Airplane view of battleships in Hampton Roads -

Courtesy of - U. S. Navy

On the Potomac is located our national capital
United States Treasury, Washington, D. C.

View of Treasury

Courtesy of
U. S. Signal Corps - Official

The White House, home of the President

South view of White House and grounds -

Courtesy of
U. S. Signal Corps-Official

The Capitol, Washington, D. C.

View of capitol and park.

- - - * - - -

REGIONAL GEOGRAPHY

MIDDLE ATLANTIC STATES

Part Two

Published by

Society for Visual Education, Inc.

West of the Coastal Plain rise the Appalachian Highlands

Dr. Atwood outlines the region on relief map and places
three placards:

(Piedmont Upland)

(Appalachian Mountains)

(Appalachian Plateau)

Lake Champlain, lying between New York and Vermont, drains into the St. Lawrence

Views of Lake Champlain

The Adirondacks, beautiful wooded mountains of northern New York

Scene in the Adirondacks

The great glacier left many lake basins
Lake George in the Adirondacks

Several views of Lake George

Cayuga Lake, one of the "Finger Lakes"

Scene of Cayuga Lake

In western New York, bordering the Great Lakes, lies the famous "fruit belt"

Apple picking.

Dairy herds furnish milk, butter and cheese for city markets

Scene on dairy farm.

The Mohawk Valley, from earliest times a route of travel between the Great Lakes and the Hudson River

View of the valley of the Mohawk river.

The Hudson River

Scene showing river and banks.

Albany is the chief city of the Upper Hudson
New York State Capitol

View of capitol building.

Catskill Mountains, bordering the Hudson on the west

Scene in the Catskills.

West Point, United States Military Academy

View of buildings and campus - Courtesy of
U. S. Signal Corps..Official

Cadets in review on Parade Ground

Uniformed cadets pass in review before officers
- Courtesy of
U. S. Signal Corps....Official

Cadet chapel, West Point Military Academy

View of chapel - Courtesy of
U. S. Signal CorpsOfficial

The Susquehanna River traverses the mountains of Pennsylvania

Scene along the Susquehanna.

Harrisburg, principal city on the Susquehanna
Pennsylvania State Capitol

View showing capitol building.

Front Street, Harrisburg

View of residence district where the Governor lives.

Rivers have cut notches through the ridges of the Appalachians
Harpers Ferry, on the Potomac

View of river at Harper's Ferry

Delaware Water Gap

Scene showing gap cut by river through the mountains.

Tobacco, grown by the early settlers of Virginia, is now raised extensively

View of tobacco field.

Philadelphia, one of the best seaports in the United States
Broad Street, in the business district, looking toward the City Hall

Section of Philadelphia's downtown district.

United States Mint, Philadelphia

Views of U. S. Mint.

Independence Hall, Philadelphia

View of building in which Declaration of Independence was signed.

Pittsburgh, iron and steel center of western Pennsylvania
Section of business district

Scene in downtown district.

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress